The Reporting Persons are concerned by the persistent discount to NAV. The Reporting Persons believe that the Board of Directors of the Issuer has not been taking appropriate action to cause the discount to NAV to be eliminated or reduced. On December 30, 2005, WHIP and Mr. Lipson submitted a letter to the Issuer nominating a slate of four nominees comprised of Mr. Lipson, Crouse, DeRosa and Ms. Plumlee for election to the board of Directors of the Issuer at the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders. The Reporting Persons intend to engage in discussions with management and the Board of the Issuer and other shareholders about possible solutions to the discount to net asset value at which the Shares have been trading.

Item 4.- Filing persons sent two letters to the Fund's board to express their concern about the persistent discount form NAV and to offer suggestions. The board responded by stating that it shares the filing person's concern but is not currently willing to commit to any specific action to address the discount. Unless the board announces an intention to address the discount by January 31, 2006, then in order to offset Mr. Horejsi's influence, the filing persons and their affiliates may, among other things, seek to increase their influence by (a) forming an alliance with others like minded shareholders (b) acquiring more shares in the market, in private transactions or through tender offer; or (c) soliciting proxies in order to obtain representation on the board.
